ADULT CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Oct. 31 - Dec. 5 - 9:45 a.m.

New Members Class-Led by Pastor Jim-Library
If you are looking for a new church home and have been visiting with the Oreland congregation, please plan to attend the fall new member class set to begin on Sunday, October 31.

Growing and Thriving: a Study in James-Led by Barbara Clydesdale Fellowship Hall
The book of James is one of the earliest books written in the New Testament. It is short, but power packed. Although some Christians interpret James as proving that good works play a role in our salvation, this letter actually says that good works are the fruit of our salvation and will attract nonbelievers to the faith. James encourages growth and maturity in believers to live what we profess to believe; to lead more consistent, caring Christian lives; and to explore the practical application of faith in family and society. "It's not that works save the Christian, but that works mark the Christian." ~Max Lucado

Shepherding a Child's Heart-Led by Erin May-Room 107

Continuing this class for parents of children of all ages, we look into the book by Tedd Tripp, "Shepherding a Child's Heart". We will focus on the role Christian parents play in speaking to their children about the Lord and how we can strive to learn what God wants us as parents to be in this most important endeavor.

Bible Fellowship Group-Led by Nick & Marilyn Furcola - Room 106

This is an open forum type discussion group covering a wide variety of topics from the Bible as a whole. Come with questions or items for discussion or simply interact with the topics and scripture presented. The only material which will be used will be God's Word, the Bible, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit.

The Gospel Centered-Life
Led by Lynette Onitiri-Room 104

This new small group style course is intended to help Christians understand how the gospel shapes every aspect of life and conduct. Colossians 1:6 says that the gospel is "continually bearing fruit and increasing" in and among us, even after we first believe it. This course is designed for everyone regardless of where we find ourselves in our Christian walk.

PRAYER of PRAISE and CONFESSION (together)

Holy God, in all times of our lives, but especially in times of testing and trial we rejoice in your never failing protection. You are our rock and fortress, our deliverer in whom we take refuge. You watch over our coming and going; you never leave or forsake us. You love us with a love that will not let us go; you make us strong when we are weak. Forgive us, Heavenly Father, our sin and lingering doubt of your all-sufficiency. Forgive us our reluctance to live fully in the Light of the Gospel. Show us your mercy. Strengthen our faith in you and in the abiding truth of your word. Guide us by the power of your Spirit to holy and triumphant living, for the glory of your name, and the up-building of your church. In the name of Jesus we pray. Amen.

"O Church, Arise" New Song*

1-O Church, arise, and put your armor on; hear the call of Christ our Captain.

For now the weak can say that they are strong in the strength that God has given.

With shield of faith and belt of truth, we'll stand against the devil's lies;

An army bold, whose battle cry is love, reaching out to those in darkness.

2-Our call to war—to love the captive soul, but to rage against the captor;

And with the sword that makes the wounded whole, we will fight with faith and valor.

When faced with trials on ev'ry side, we know the outcome is secure,

And Christ will have the prize for which he died—an inheritance of nations.

3-Come see the cross, where love and mercy meet, as the Son of God is stricken;

Then see His foes lie crushed beneath His feet, for the Conqueror has risen!

And as the stone is rolled away and Christ emerges from the grave,

This vict'ry march continues till the day ev'ry eye and heart shall see Him.

4-So Spirit come, put strength in every stride, give grace for ev'ry hurdle,

That we may run with faith to win the prize of a servant good and faithful.

As saints of old still line the way, retelling triumphs of His grace,

We hear their calls and hunger for the day when with Christ we stand in glory.
